Art

Artists are creative by nature. As a Lourdes art major, students can be visually expressive and explore the juxtapositions of light and shade, and thought and action within the context of a liberal arts education. Hone your craft in a variety of mediums. Best of all, learn first-hand how to prepare and launch art exhibits.

Students can also choose to major in Art History or Pre-Art Therapy

Meet Kiley, an Art Major