Nuci’s Space Fact Sheet

Type of organization: a nonprofit organization; the only organization in Athens, Ga. that caters specifically to musicians experiencing mental health issues.

Founded: Linda Phillips founded the organization in 1999 after her son Nuci killed himself due to a long battle with chronic depression.

Mission: Our mission is to prevent suicide. With a focus on musicians, Nuçi’s Space advocates for and helps to alleviate the suffering for those living with a brain illness and fights to end the stigma of mental illness.

Size: Nuci’s Space serves over 200 patients a year.

Fundraising Achievements: Through fundraisers and campaigns Nuci’s Space manages to raise over $1,500 per year to provide counseling to musicians suffering from mental illness throughout the community.

Membership: All who seek guidance are welcome. This is an open facility.

Sponsors:
- Arden’s Garden
- Guitar Center
- Athens First Bank & Trust
- Zaxby’s
- Athens Regional Medical Center
- 40 Watt Club
- Athens Business Rocks

Awards: Nuci’s Space recently received a music grant awarded by the Georgia Music Foundation this January 2018. Founder, Linda Phillips also won the first-place award in the 2017 Feathered Quill Book Awards Program for the Best Memoir category.